French Louis XV Style Teal Serpentine Commode

French Louis XV-style serpentine commode that contrasts a smooth, scalloped gray painted faux marble top with a wooden, teal-painted body of undulated drawers with gold pulls and petite, carved cabriole legs with ball feet connected by a carved, pierced apron. The commode is decorated with intricately-captured ribbon and leaf motifs along with figurative scenes of men holding umbrellas or fishing on the front and sides, rendered in yellow and cream. (Similar to NWL2320).
